

A group of five student leaders, three women and two men, are standing in front of a brick building. The building has a sign that says 'LUKE'S' and 'NEW YORK'S BEST LOBSTER ROLL'. The students are wearing various clothing, including sweatshirts and jackets, some with 'HOWARD' and 'EST. 1867' printed on them. The image is overlaid with a blue tint.

WELCOME TO CASHA

Welcome to the Family!

Welcome to the College of Arts and Sciences Honors Association (CASHA)!

As a member of the College of Arts and Sciences Honors Program, you are automatically a member of CASHA. We are the official student-led association dedicated to supporting, connecting, and celebrating every honors scholar throughout their academic journey.

CASHA exists to build a tight-knit community, foster intellectual growth, and serve as your advocate within the honors program and across campus. We appreciate the unique perspectives, academic drive, and energy you bring to our community.

Welcome to CASHA—we are so glad you are here!

GOALS & VISION

Our Mission

To cultivate a thriving intellectual community within the College of Arts and Sciences where honors scholars are actively engaged, mutually accountable, and empowered through accessible resources and transparent communication.

Our Vision

The COAS Honors Program will be recognized as a community where every member feels connected, informed, and invested—where academic excellence is matched by genuine belonging, and where both student leaders and honors scholars hold themselves and each other to the highest standards of participation and engagement.

Core Strategic Goals

Intellectual & Social Community: Creating inclusive spaces, collaborative programming, and meaningful traditions that foster authentic connection across all majors and class years.

Empowerment & Resource Accessibility: Ensuring every scholar has transparent access to academic support, professional development, and community opportunities.

Advocacy & Accountability: Serving as a reliable, proactive voice for student needs while fostering mutual accountability between leaders and scholars.

THANK

You

Thank you for reviewing this directory. The peers listed in these pages are here as a direct resource, mentor network, and sounding board for your academic and professional journey.

We strongly encourage you to connect with your student leaders—reach out to them in your major GroupMes, ask questions, and take full advantage of the programming ahead. Our primary mission is to build a vibrant, close-knit, and collaborative community within the COAS Honors Program, but that vision only comes to life when you jump in.

We look forward to connecting, growing, and thriving together this year.

Warmly,
COAS Honors Student Leadership
